I will be in the office on Friday and other times during the week to make sure everything that needs to get done is done. But these times fluctuate depending on the week.

Thursday, July 29th—Memorial of St. Martha

Friday, July 30th—Opt. Memorial of St. Peter Chrysologus

Saturday, July 31st—Feast of St. Ignatius of Loyola

Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) is looking for volunteers to help by reading (8th grade and older) and teaching (adults). We are also looking for someone to volunteer to lead the CLOW program by making sure the schedule is taken care of and materials are ready. If anyone is interested you can contact the office of religious education. This is a great ministry to get involved in and is a small commitment once a month at the 9:30 or 11:30 Sunday Masses. SIGN UP TODAY!!

Pre-School PSR is accepting registrations for the program starting in September. You can print up a registration form off the parish website and turn it into the parish office to sign up. Classes are open to all 3, 4 and 5 year olds and are being held during the 9:30 am Mass on Sunday Mornings in the school classrooms. Check the requirements on the registration form for more information.

The Lighthouse Catholic Media CD stand is in the back of church The CD's are still available in the back of church on the table to the left of the main doors of church. There are some great CD's back there and it is a great opportunity to learn more about the Catholic faith while driving in your car. We ask for a small donation when CD's or books are taken so that we can restock the CD stand with more titles. ($3) When the titles in the stand are gone then we can order new ones. I would encourage everyone to take one CD home and listen to it. This is a great way to learn more about our Catholic faith. When you are done listening to the CD then share it with someone else you might think would like it.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults)

If you've been coming to Mass for a while, but are not Catholic, we invite you to look deeper into the Catholic faith. Come meet some faithful Catholics who love the Lord and would consider it a privilege to get to know you. Our parish will soon begin a set of sessions to share with others the truths of the Catholic faith and the fellowship of our church family. We invite you to learn what Catholics believe in an open and welcoming environment. These sessions also are opportunities for you to ask those perplexing and difficult questions you may have about the Church. Sessions are always held on Thursday at 7 pm.

This first session is September 16th in PMR #1. Feel free to come any Thursday.

Please give Jonathan Schaefer a call if you have questions or would like further information at 341-4900 ext. 113, or email us at jschaefer@stpiusx.com

PSR is once again looking for Volunteers to be Catechists for next years PSR program. Grades 5, 6, and 7 are in need for catechists. Call the Office of Religious Education to help...if you are not interested but know someone you think may be good at teaching religion to the children of the parish then please invite them to sign up to help out. Help is needed for this great mission of passing on our faith to the next generation. Even if your kids attend the parish school you can still volunteer to help in the PSR program. Check out the Why Be a Catechist pamphlet in the back of church. DEADLINE FOR PSR REGISTRATIONS WAS JULY 1st so Please get your registrations into the church office as soon as you can to save your spot. A waiting listed will be started once a class reaches a certain size do to some of the classes being to large last year.

FORMING GOOD STEWARDS

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
"Lord, teach us to pray!" Luke 11:1-14

Abraham bargains to save Sodom. He starts out with fifty innocent people. God agrees. Obviously lacking confidence he will find fifty, he bargains God down to ten. He could not even find ten, so Sodom is destroyed. The Old Testament covenants were bargains with God. God always kept his part. The patriarchs and Israelites were not so faithful. The disciples saw Jesus as a person who was faithful to the Covenant and a man of prayer. They asked Him, "Lord, teach us to pray." He teaches them the Our Father. Then He tells the stories of the persistent woman and fathers who give their children bread and eggs, not snakes and scorpions. Are we confident when we pray to God, Our Father in heaven, that His Kingdom, not ours, will come; that his will, not ours, be done; for our daily bread not tomorrow's or next year's; and to forgive our sins as we forgive others? Are we good stewards who are persistent in prayer to learn God's will? If at first you don't succeed, skydiving may not be your thing. Try prayer instead. And keep trying.

IN OUR PARISH

Thank You, Thank You, Thank You I owe a great gratitude to all who participated in the celebration of the Golden Anniversary to the Priesthood. It was a magnificent Mass and party. I will remember it for the rest of my life. Words don't come near expressing my feelings. Thank you to all who participated, sent cards of congratulations, gave me gifts and to the presenters who tried desperately to make my life in the priesthood seem valuable. Thanks to all who participated in the Mass, the Priests, the choir, the servers and all my relatives and friends who truly made it a glorious celebration. To all those who came to the party in Milligan Hall, thank you so much. I could not stop the kudos without giving a very special heart felt thank you to Mary Krahe and Cheri Griffin, two fine ladies who spent months preparing for this event. It would not have happened without them. Thank you, Mary and Cheri. Finally, on a personal note, a big thank you to my only brother who worked to make this success for his big brother. Thanks Dick.

Fr. John Riesenberg

Communion Calls and Hospital Visits We do our best to visit people when they are homebound or in the hospital. If you are, or know someone, in our parish who wishes us to bring them Holy Communion because of inability to get out or get to Mass, please call Carolyn Bitzer at 331-3949 or the church office at 341-4900 ext. 120 and let us know. Likewise, if you are or know someone who is in the hospital, it is always best to make sure a family member calls the church office or Carolyn Bitzer. Hospitals, even Catholic ones, do not automatically do so due to privacy restrictions.

LECTORS: Schedules have been emailed to you. Schedules are also available on the bookrack in back of church. A schedule is posted on the bulletin board next to the sacristy. The schedule is on the St. Pius website. Please mark your calendars and find a sub if you cannot fulfill your commitment. Sign-in before mass begins.
