

DEBBIE SCHULENBERG DAY SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Established 2007

This scholarship has been established to honor the life of Debbie Schulenberg Day, St. Pius X School music teacher. Debbie dedicated her life to Catholic elementary school music education. Her enthusiasm for music and life in general has been passed on to countless students over her teaching career. Her hope in the future was evident in all that she did. With this in mind, Mrs. Day's family and St. Pius X School have established the following criteria for this scholarship:

- A. Students in grades K – 7 may apply for the scholarship
- B. Students applying MUST have an A or B average in MUSIC
- C. Students applying maintain academic quality in ALL subject areas
- D. Families applying should show some financial need
 - a. Provide a copy of the latest tax return
- E. Family will write a letter requesting the scholarship
- F. Applications will be sent home in the family packets in March
- G. Applications, tax forms and letters are to be returned to school April 15.
- H. The scholarship will be announced at the final school liturgy.

A selection committee made up of Mr. Patrick Day, the principal and assistant principal of St. Pius X School will make the final selection.
